

ADA Access Inspections

Many business in California have been sued by disabled patrons who were either denied access or had problems accessing a business. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) provides federal civil rights protection to these individuals with disabilities. It guarantees equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities in public accommodations, employment, transportation, State and local government services, and telecommunications.

If you are unsure if your business is ADA complaint give us a call. We can come out to your business and do a site inspection and inform you of basic ADA requirements for small businesses that provide goods and services to the public. If your business is not complaint we will advise you of the necessary steps you need to take to bring it into compliance. By law an individual who is denied access to a business is entitled to a MINIMUM of $4,000 per violation.

Do not wait until you get sued before taking the appropriate steps to update your facility. You are eligible for tax credits for any access improvements you make. Call us today at 916-487-5441.
